

WHAT DOES IT TAKE TO BE A GODLY MAN?

Tim Brown was living a life that most men would envy. As a Heisman trophy winner at Notre Dame and a rising star with the Los Angeles Raiders, he had money, fame, success and all the temptations that went with the lifestyle of a celebrity. However, as he looked at everything he had been given, he realized that what mattered most was living in a way that honored God, taking responsibility for his family, and being an influence for Christ in the world.

Join us for this six-session video-based study that will help you discover true manhood, avoid the pitfalls of temptation, truly lead your family, and live in such a way that your life brings honor to God.

Info: